Dear Phil:

I look forward with great interest to the publication of the "Jewish News" under your guidance and direction. With an honest editorial policy, and a genuine desire to publish all the news fairly, I am sure the News will receive a hearty response from the Jewish community of Detroit.

There will be many opportunities for a paper that follows the highest ideals of integrity and honesty to accomplish much good for the Jewish community of Detroit, and as the Jewish community interests are bound up very closely with the welfare of the entire city of Detroit, the scope and success of your work will only be limited by the sincerity and devotion and sacrifice that you give to the publication.

Best wishes for its success.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Waxman
