Dear Mr. Slomovitz:

I learned through the local press that the "Jewish News" was launched to serve the community.

I want to take this opportunity to extend my cordial greetings and best wishes, and to express the hope that the "Jewish News", because of a progressive and patriotic policy, will prosper and wield an influence upon its readers that will be most helpful and inspiring.

I hope that the "Jewish News" will embody the finest and the best to be found in journalism and literature, that it will reflect the finest expression of typographical art, and that you and your staff will launch the enterprise in the direction of a lasting existence.

I subscribe myself,

Cordially and sincerely yours,
