Mr. Philip Slomovitz,
Detroit Jewish News,
2114 Penobscot Building,
Detroit, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Slomovitz:

I am happy to know of the launching of the Detroit Jewish News. Knowing something of the difficulties under which a Jewish journal operates, it is a courageous and noteworthy undertaking to establish a new paper at this time.

From your own record of service to the Jewish community and to Jewish newspaperdom as well as from the calibre of those associated with the new paper, I am certain it will do credit to the Jewish community of Detroit.

To all associated with the Detroit Jewish News I send my best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Monsky
